We pause to reflect, for a weekend, on our founders—the Rededication of Cutler Hall, the big event, was complete with crowds, our band, notable speakers, including Governor Herbert. His cannon salute broke the usual peace of the campus, caused many to reflect uneasily.

Women's League, of which every enrolled women student is a member, supervises campus affairs concerning the women of Ohio University and sponsors a well rounded social program. The League is composed of two bodies, the assembly and the senate, and all housing units are represented. McGuffey Hall serves as headquarters for meetings of the organization.

On the 47-48 calendar were weekly open houses at Dean Voigt's, mass meetings on every phase of the home, and in the spring, a conference of Women's Government Organizations from various colleges the size of OU. The annual Co-ed Prom, Leader's Rally Luncheon, freshmen mixers, the music festival and the housemother's tea are all sponsored by Women's League.

Women's League Assembly includes: FIRST ROW: Jan NeCamken, Gerry Kavalir, Margaret Huck, Marjorie Tarlow, Dolores Horgan, Barbara Smith, Donno Lee Burton, Nancy Quackenbush, Joan Cross, Kathy Bernhardi, Vicky Janapolis. SECOND ROW: Estelle Kolish, Harriet Stine, Joan Maseritz, Thelma Shott, Ruth Hubbard, Martha Ohlinger, Patricia Jewett, Nancy Troup, Georgeonne Fornwalt, Carol Brosmer, Dottie Malak, Judy

Women's League Senate serenades Dean Voigt before Christmas vacation.

It's snack time every Friday afternoon at League Lounge. Leader's Rally Luncheon at the Grill has fine showing.

MEN'S UNION PLANNING BOARD

The executive body of the Men's Union, the Men's Union Planning Board, provides a social program for the campus at large and especially for the more than 4,000 men on campus. It functions as the men's administrative body in campus student government and sponsors all-campus traditional events.

The registration hop and the freshman mixer started the activities in September, along with the intramural tournaments in billiards, chess and bridge. October saw over 2,000 students trek to Western Reserve for the annual Migration Day. Homecoming with its gala floats, house decorations and Homecoming Queen was one of the year's highlights. Climaxing the football season, MUPB sponsored Dad's Day, which included a weekend of entertainment.

This year donations were made to YMCA and the Rec Hall to meet expenses and furnish newspapers. $800 was put into the Men's Union Loan Fund.

In the spring the all men's show, the Rodeo, wound up OU's greatest year.

The Men's Union sponsors the men's small sports program, and gives the Homecoming float awards.

OU's War Memorial on the Green is a popular between-classes meeting place.

CAMPUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

FIRST ROW: Miss Work, Nancy Quackenbush, Dean Hunkins, Dean Voigt, Donna Burton, Miss Appel. SECOND ROW: Rocky Russo, Paul Clark, Herb Klier, Prof. Nessley, Prof. Krauss.

The Campus Affairs Committee is the official executive body governing extra-curricular life, authorized and recognized by the board of trustees.

Dean Voigt and Dean Hunkins, representatives of the administration, serve as co-chairmen.

The committee supervises allocation of a portion of student activity fees, makes decisions relative to new organizations on campus, and has jurisdiction over rules and regulations of the student body.

C.A.C. also selects the staffs of the Post and the Athena.

Student members include the presidents of Women's League and Men's Union, and the president, first and second vicepresidents of Student Council, the last three elected by student vote according to a system inaugurated a OU in the fall of 1947.

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: Dean Irma Voigt, Rocky Russo, Herbert Klier, Donna Lee Burton, William Dietrich, Dean Hunkins. ECCOND ROW: Retur South Artic Cill Martin Bard, Davides Kauss, Nick Alassa de David

SECOND ROW: Betty Smith, Avis Gill, Marty Reed, Pauline Kruse, Nick Alexander, Paul Gapp, Nancy Quackenbush, Becky Leadrach, Nick Mihalik.

Nineteen hundred and farty-eight saw the inauguration of a new demacratic era on the campus of Ohia University, with a campus-wide election held in the spring for the offices of president and the two vice-presidents. The council drew up an organizational chart of all governing bodies on campus, and this was edited into the handboak. The student governing body is comprised of the presidents of Men's Union, Women's League, and all ather campus arganizations including the recently admitted member of W. O. U. N. Acting as advisors are Dean Voigt and Dean Hunkins.

Student Council sponsars dances, student canvocations, and the traditional caroling outside Memorial Auditorium. A Sadie Hawkin's Weekend replaced our former Apple-Palishing Weekend this spring, and the Senior Class benefit play, "The Importance of Being Earnest" was presented in November.

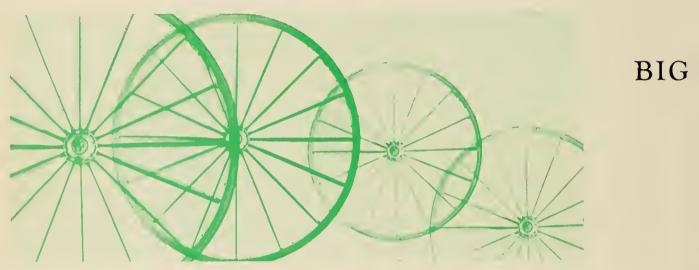

Courtesy and Fire Prevention Week both found the interest of the student body, accompanied by a series of articles in the O. U. Past. Definite steps promoting more student representation an the faculty committees were taken, with a student council member now a member of the Grill committee.

A Recreation Hall Student committee was also set up. A drive for a fund for a new Student Center Building was under way early this spring. Student Council participated actively in the National Students Association.

COLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCE

Agriculture, aviation, engineering, home economics, and industrial arts comprise the major divisions of the College of Applied Science, under Dean E. J. Taylor.

Each division has its laboratories where theory is demonstrated and principles are applied. The agriculture department has its farm; aviation has its airport; etc.

Engineering offers curriculum in aeronautical, structural, architectural, civil, electrical, and industrial engineering.

The home economics division offers home economics education, family relationships and child development, foods and nutrition, home economics in business, and textiles and clothing.

A broad and liberal background, fundamentals and their application are the objectives of the curricula of the College. Specialization comes from further training and experience.

'48 WAS OU'S GREATEST YEAR! Over 5500 students crowded onto the campus and environs in September and the year's activities were not slow to start. The football squad was already in action and the Post came out the first week. Traditionally fast starters, OU's Greek social groups got off to a rousing start. Pledges were quickly added to the roles and almost as quickly were put to silly tasks.

Trowel, a newcomer to the parade, set its fledglings to measuring Court Street with Scott's thousand sheets.

APPLIED SCIENCE SENIORS

THE PHI KAP PLEDGES threw a white line down the center of the walk from the main gate to Cutler.

But all wasn't silliness for the 24 fraternities and sororities. Biggest contribution to the campus was the sorority pledges' annual Prep Follies, in '48 a stirring review with a minstrel format.

Competition among Greek groups to gain honor in J-Prom King and Queen balloting and in like activities enlivened the campus for pin wearers and independents alike.

MAKING THEIR FULL CONTRIBUTION to student life in '48 were OU's large organizations dedicated to all-campus activity. The bustling YWCA helped dedicate the new Rec Hall by throwing an open house for freshman women. The gals started off with apples on their heads but came away with acclaims for all the constructive work they did through '48. In this combination of good fun and constructive work they were typical of OU's large groups.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The aim of the College of Arts and Sciences, under the supervision of Dr. Walter S. Gammertsfelder is to give a broad cultural education with emphasis upon the student's interests and professional objectives. The college is comprised of sixteen departments and offers courses in English, foreign languages, the biological sciences, the physical sciences, and mathematics.

This college offers three degrees: the Bachelor of Arts, the Bachelor of Science and the Bachelor of Science in Chemistry.

In the College of Arts and Sciences the first two years are spent in acquiring a general background for the concentration on a major in the junior and senior years. In this way, the students obtains a broader education than by just specializing in his major field for four years.

BIG FALL EVENT WAS HOMECOMING, in '48 as in any year. Old grads came back with all the gusto of former years and the float parade was just as unique, just as funny as in the past.

For the second straight year OU tasted defeat on the gridiron, but grads and undergrads tasted nothing but good cheer up and down Court Street throughout the gala celebration. '48 seniors only hope that next year they can come back for Homecoming.

ARTS AND SCIENCES SENIORS

'48 WAS A GREAT YEAR for OU's multitude of departmental clubs where the guys and girls could talk shop in their spare time. Biggest group was the OU Engineers who gathered new members at a mixer for the slide rule and transit lads.

Almost every major course of study was represented in these out-of-class groups wherein student and professor let down their hair for man-to-man discussions of the "problems in our field."

SCHOOL SPIRIT IN '48 was NOT represented by the photo the camera boy couldn't resist snapping. If two men sat through a rainy junior varsity football game....that's great. Cheers were loud and long and there were times during basketball season when it seemed that the roof would raise to the roar of 2,500 OU throats urging the team on for Alma Mater. OU might have had cause to reprove itself on school spirit at other times, but not in '48.

Phyllis Milner.

THIRD ROW: John Miller, Mary Myers, Sylvia Olurferst, Joy Patterson, Estelle Pavloff, Edith Perlaff, Cynthia Pettingill. FOURTH ROW: Pauline Pickering, Betty Huntington, Wilber Parterfield, Nancy Quackenbush, Janice Raus, Dudley Rolla, Luther Rhine.

THE AVERAGE OF OU'S STUDENT BODY was probably at its highest in '48, but the fellows and girls could still go collegiate and even childlike for their kicks. The first snow had hardly fallen before front lawns sported snow men like Pierce Cottage's and Phi Bete pre-med majors slid down East Hill on their posteriors.

The snow made for a lot of laughs and a Post reporter even spotted the president doing a little sliding.

COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

The largest field of interest of OU veterans is the College of Commerce. It is under the supervision of A. H. Armbruster, who became director in 1934.

The college requires a broad background and specialized competence. It offers three degrees: Bachelor of Science in Journalism, Bachelor of Science in Commerce, and Bachelor of Science in Secretarial Studies.

Students seeking a degree in Commerce may specialize in a wide range of fields including accounting, advertising, banking, business law, pre-law school preparation, economics, finance, labor, personnel or industrial management, marketing, taxation, or statistics.

The School of Commerce provides excellent opportunities for those who wish to follow commercial activities and offers many benefits to the average citizen in preparing him better to handle his own financial affairs.

'48 WAS A YEAR OF CHANGING STYLES

far America and OU's campus was no exception. The "New Look" far the caeds was slaw in developing but after Christmas it was as firmly established an Callege Street as on Fifth Avenue.

To show the variety of coed styles, some of the shutter clickers got a passel of femmes to pose in front of Haward. Soon afterwards there came an eruption on the male side. Beating Esquire to the punch — —

THIRD ROW: John Bowman, David Bowyer, Stanley Brenner, Patricia Brider, Jack Brown, Jim Braun, Harry Brawn, FOURTH ROW: Charles Calhoun, Charles Card, Carla Clark, Paul Clarke, Darwin Close, Allen Cohen, Jack Coleman. OU STALWARTS CLEANED LOCAL HAB-ERDASHERIES of golf knickers and caps and full length argyle hose. An added filip was the shoulder holster for.....

So while OU's women were led by fashion experts the men set their own new fashion and for a time gave the campus many a laugh.

Seriously, OU became more clathes canscious in '48 and a return to formal wear at dances was but one trend. But with all the talk about New Look and Old Look and Bold Look, sweaters and slacks and skirts remained most popular classroom wear.

COMMERCE SENIORS

SINCE JOHN C. BAKER'S COMING to the helm, OU has been climbing upward and '48 was another step in the rise. Not wholly indicative of curriculum changes, but certainly interesting, was the change of pace that sent men to flapjack flipping in Home Economics and women to hammering nails in Industrial Arts.

OU men and women continued to take coveted academic honors and seniors had the added incentive of trying to cop one of the special scholarships provided by the OU Fund.

FIVE OUTSTANDING SENIORS were afforded an opportunity to meet important people in their field and to study new developments through the OU Fund.

Many men and women of '48 were named to Phi Beta Kappa and other honoraries but most important was that any degree from OU in '48 came as the result of finishing the stiffest requirements in the school's history. President Baker's policy was beginning to pay off.

COMMERCE SENIORS

THIRD ROW: Joyce Martındıll, Edward Martyniak, Charles Matheny, Robert Max, Marilyn Maxwell, Burton Melcher, Jean Mickle.

EVEN WHILE BATTLING INFLATION on $65

or $90 or thin checks from home, OU didn't forget the less fortunate in '48. Typical of campus reaction to charity drives was WOUN's takeover of the March of Dimes drive for the city of Athens. All drives met their goals and the campus Red Cross chapter continued its fine work both on and off campus. It couldn't be said of OU in '48 that it was selfish. It was anything but.

COMMERCE SENIORS

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The College of Education, under the Dean E. R. Collins, prepares men and women to enter the teaching field. All colleges of the university contribute to the development of a broad and liberal education, but College of Education develops a specialized skill and gives professional and vocational direction to these cooperative programs.

Preparation is given for teaching in kindergarten, elementary and high schools. The college has superior facilities for student teaching, giving increasing attention to audio-visual aids and instructing students in their use.

Co-operation with other colleges of the University helps give many students certificates for teaching, even though they are not enrolled in the College of Education.

The College emphasizes nutrition, child development, and conservation education in its curricula.

FOOD WAS NO LESS AN INTEREST in '48 than it was in other years. The sandwich man on the dormitory and Greek house route was still the most popular man on campus at 10:30 at night.

The food situation which had become desperate in '47 was solved for us this year and there were no lines on Court Street in '48. The usual campus hangouts, Blackmore's, Quick's, Jake's and the Rainbow were always jumping with stomach liners and people even ordered food occasionally in the Esquire and Tavern.

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

The College of Fine Arts, under the direction of Dean Earl C. Seiglried, includes music, dramatic art, speech, speech correction, radio, painting, design, architecture, and photography. In addition to classroom and laboratory instruction, the college offers an extensive program of plays, radio broadcasts, concerts, and exhibitions.

This year the school of dramatics presented four major theatrical productions, "The Late George Apley", "Moor Born", "Skin of Our Teeth", and "Philadelphia Story".

WOUN, the Ohio University broadcasting station, expanded its operations this year. All home varsity basketball games, as well as the music of the dance bands appearing in Athens, were broadcast in addition to the regular scheduled programs.

VISITORS WERE NO RARITY in '48. Almost every department had people come in from outside to lend their experience. A visitor of long standing was visiting lecturer Gerda Peterich in photography, and like the others, she left behind her many a valuable tip.

Convocation speakers of quality were also plentiful in '48 and Governor Herbert topped the list by speaking at Cutler Rededication ceremonies.

These added pleasures were fitting iceing to a great year.

Since the advent of the student veteran and his family, the complexion of the campus has changed somewhat. Temporary dwellings have mushroomed in every available building space, and Athens' stores are filled with young wives and mothers doing their daily shopping. Joe College now has a new worry—taking care of his family.

FAMILIES

It's not an unusual sight to see a student father studying his economics while walking his baby, or his wife hurrying home from history class to start dinner. Baby sitters are at a premium, and budgets (family size) are the biggest worry.

Coach Trautwein led the Bobcat basketball team through a stiff schedule with ten wins and ten losses despite numerous injuries to his players. In Mid-American Conference competition, the Bobcats finished third behind Cincinnati and Butler by winning four out of eight conference games. Butler was the only team to defeat the Bobcats twice during the season. The OU team posted double victories over both the Miami and Ohio Wesleyan squads. The Bobcats were led through the season by three seniors, Dick Shrider, Mark Wylie, and Harry Gordon. All three of these men were accorded national honors. Shrider had a 16.4 points scored per game average to place him eighteenth in the nation. Wylie, who completed 32 consecutive foul shots during one stretch of the season, finished third in the nation among major colleges in the foul shooting department. He completed 88 out of 102 tries for a percentage of .863.

Harry Gordon finished second in the nation in average personal fouls committed per game with a percentage of 3.95. Shrider led the Bobcats in total points scored with 311 in 19 games. Wylie totaled 170 points for second place among the Bobcat players. Harry Gordon was the only member of the squad to start in all of the Bobcat games. In the previous season, he had started in all of the Bobcat's 23 games. Gene Kinsley was the only other player who saw action in all of the Bobcat's games during the season, but he failed to start in all of them. A resume of the season shows that the Bobcats won their first three games beating Dayton, Marietta, and Xaxier. Bowling Green handed the Bobcats their first loss, Miami and Wayne were both easy victories for the O. U. team, a great Kentucky team beat O. U. by 22 points, Western Reserve beat us by one point, we beat Ohio Wesleyan and then lost to Akron by 2 points. Butler won two games over the Bobcats, Xavier avenged their earlier defeat, and the Bobcats then won over Miami, Western Reserve, and Ohio Wesleyan. They split a pair of games with Cincinnati and suffered defeats at the hands of Wayne, and Marietta.

OU 34, Ohio Northern 0.

Ohio Northern proved to be no match for the Bobcats who were playing their first game under the coaching of Harold Wise. The Bobcats new style of attack, the T formation, was good for five touchdowns and four extra points. Risser, Schultz, Luecke, and Bitler made touchdowns for OU; Bitler scoring twice. Sudnick made good on 4 of his 5 attempted conversions.

OU 14, Butler 7.

The Bobcats had to come from behind in the third quarter by scoring twice and adding the extra points to win this game. This game played at Ohio Stadium was the first game of the newly formed Mid-American Conference. The Butler score came soon after the opening kickoff. Ohio scored on a pass from Mills to Brady and on a plunge by Bitler. Sudnick converted twice for OU.

A large throng of Bobcats rooters ventured to Cleveland to see the Migration Day Game. Reserve scored three quick touchdowns in five minutes of the third period to overcome the Bobcats. In the first half, Brady scored for Ohio on a plunge, and Sudnick converted. OU penalities and fumbles, plus a blocked kick set up all of the Reserve scores.

OU 0, Bowling Green 2.

A blocked kick spelled defeat for the Bobcats on a rainsoaked Bowling Green field. Brady's goal line kick was blocked by Bowling Green and went out of the end zone to give them two points. In the third period Ohio recovered a Bowling Green fumble on the 26. After working the ball down to the 9 yard line, Ohio tried a field goal on fourth down. The attempt by Sudnick was wide.

OU 0, Miami 21.

The Miami Redskins handed the Bobcats their third straight loss. The Redskins scored right after taking the opening kickoff. A completed pass marked their first score. An end sweep in the second quarter was good for their second touchdown. The Miami team, which went on to win the Sun Bowl Game on New Year's Day in Texas, completely outplayed the Bobcats.

OU 0, Cincinnati 34.

A capacity OU Homecoming crowd at the Stadium saw the Bearcats of Cincinnati snap a no-win jinx which had extended for more than 50 years. The Bearcats touchdowns mounted as they repeatedly pierced the Bobcats defenses and plunged over for scores. Another Bearcat touchdown resulted from an intercepted Bobcat pass. The Bearcats' speed and strength was too much for the Bobcats to overcome.

OU 7, Ohio Wesleyan 7.

After holding a seven point lead throughout three quarters the Bobcats had to settle for a tie. The Bishops outplayed OU in almost every department. A line plunge by Brady in the first quarter gave the Bobcats six points and Sudnick converted for the seventh. The Bishops tied the score in the third period on an 18 yard reverse; the kick for extra point was good.

OU 6, Dayton 18.

The Dayton Flyers emerged victorious from this battle despite the rain and mud. An intercepted OU lateral in the first period set up the Flyers first score. The second Dayton touchdown resulted from a 24 yard pass. In the fourth period Brady rammed over the center from the Dayton two yard line for the Bobcats only score. The extra point attempt was wide. #### OU 12, Xavier 7.

In their last game of the season, the Bobcats pulled an upset by winning over the Musketeers of Xavier University. A Dad's Day crowd was able to see a good end to a poor season for the Bobcats. Ohio brought the second half kickoff back to their own 25 yard line. In two running plays, Sudnick carried the pigskin to the Xavier 27 yard line. Brady plunged over for the first Bobcat score. Ohio scored again the next time they got possession of the ball. In one of the most thrilling runs of the season, Stefan stepping back into the end zone to kick, took the pass from center and raced 104 yards behind beautiful blocking for the Bobcats second score. McQuade of Xavier then put on a fine display of passing and completed a pass for the Xavier touchdown. McQuade completed 13 out of 26 passes for 216 yards gain to give the Bobcats plenty of trouble all afternoon.

These religious activities of vespers at meetings comprise an important part ol Kappa Beta's program, but they are linked with an adequate social activity calendar of informal teas and gettogethers.

The club also takes part in the annual weekend retreat to Lake Hope by the entire Disciples Foundation.

The motto of the club-"Stir up the gift of God within you"-acts as a challenge and a guide to all its members for the building of true Christian character in womenhood.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

The Christian Science Organization at Ohio University offers all students interested in this religion a chance to become better acquainted with Christian Science. It also provides an opportunity for the university public to attend the lectures on Christian Science.

Although the purpose of the organization is primarily religious; social functions, which included wienie-roasts and get-together parties, were also part of the year's program.

We boosted to almost double the attendance of our student-prepared meetings, which we held weekly instead of semi-monthly, as was done last year. These meetings were held in McGuffy Hall.

The inter-dorm council is made up of representatives from Lindley, Boyd, Howard Halls, and Sprague Cottage.

The council functions as a medium through which mutual plans of the dormitories can be formulated and discussed.

This year the Women's League, in trying to bolster campus averages, set aside a sum of money to be used for a plaque. This plaque is to be presented by the Inter-dorm Council to the dormitory having the highest point average.

Highlighting the social season at Boyd Hall was the annual winter formal. The theme chosen for the event. Victorian Ball, was carried out in the "gay nineties" motif, and the coeds and their dates enjoyed the tunes of Willie McKay's orchestra.

Boyd Hall opened its doors and affered its hospitality again at the "Moonshine" record dance, one of the numerous open houses to which men flocked. The winner of their limerick contest was given a date with the Boyd Queen of his choice.

Originality was displayed in the Variety Show sponsored in the dorm, and a number of hayrides and weiner roasts dotted the social calendar. The excursion to "Old Man's Cave" proved to be a worth-while experience, and winter brought the annual Christmas dinner, attended by President Baker.

The after ten discussion stubs' are an important part of Dorm afe at Howard.

Howard Hall, in the heart of the campus, found its way into the hearts of many through its policy of cordiality and cooperation. It sponsored many open houses including one on a pigskin theme, and a Winter Wonderland Formal among its many social functions.

There were teas and coffee hours, court dances, and a formal Christmas dinner for President Baker besides the annual house council breakfast and Carismas party, which all went to show the newcomers and freshmen that life at Howard is what its cracked up to be.

Spring saw the Rec. Hall serving as host to a combined party of Howardites and residents of Lower Campus. Howard coeds are represented in almost every phase of campus life, with other honoraries, as well as social clubs and the Y. M. C. A.

Lindley Hall, the largest women's dorm on campus, participated in and sponsored numerous projects during the year. They collected money for needy children in Kentucky and made a very substantial contribution to the March of Dimes campaign.

Their winter formal was a great success and one of the best on campus for the year.

Lindley Hallites did  $\alpha$  splendid job for the vets at Chillicothe by their large contribution to their hospital.

One of the outstanding events of the year which was neither social not academic was the lights—pardon, no lights—for three days and nights. It was fun for awhile, living by candle light and running to the lounge for callers instead of to the phone, but the residents were happy to see the power return, for they found it hard to study by candlelight.

Lindley's Winter Formal featured Bill McCutcheon and Orchestra.

BECKLEY COTTAGE

Along with a brand new house mother, Miss Ester Jane Hand, Beckley Cottage this year received new carpets and new drapes, which made their lounge homelike. The twenty occupants had a full social schedule to supplement their regular studies. These activities included an open house, a fall weiner roast at Dean Voigt's, a gay Christmas party, a spring outdoor party and a hay ride just for the girls in the Cottage.

Like other women's accomodations, Beckley was very crowded this year, but that was not as bothersome as the lurnace. It seemed that either the furnace did not work, and the girls froze, or that it filled the house with smoke. But they are looking forward hapefully to next year, when the Cottage has been promised steam heat.

Beckley made good use of their porch roofs during the year. In the fall and the spring the back porch roof was used for sun bathing, and the front porch was an ideal vantage point to listen to serenades at the surrounding houses.

FIRST ROW: H. Beardmore, J. Epstein, M. Henning, C. Costello, M. Juvinall. SECOND ROW: M. Wahlberg, D. Warren, J. Hales, N. Shupe, Pres., N. Westbrock, R. DiFranco, S. Inbender.

SECOND ROW: H. Huston, S. Molor, D. Galtiroath, B. Zelesnik, J. Bershen, L. Charvat, A. Wilbur, A. Carlin, J. Locker.

Lash Cottage, with its seventeen women, opened the school year with a Freshman Day that the frosh will long remember — but after the initiation, everything was forgiven at a party. A weiner roast late in October was enjoyed by everyone.

Lash was elaborately decorated for Christmastime, and after the tree was trimmed, the girls had a party. They showed their hospitality by entertaining the Phi Kappa's after they had serenaded Lash. Under the direction of Ann Wilbur, the president, and Housemother Mrs. Gill, a Valentine Party was held on Feb. 14.

The women of Lash are justly proud of their high scholastic averages—for the first semester 1947-48 the house average was 2.76.

McVEY COTTAGE

"48" was a busy year for McVey Cottage, as they organized their own campaign to send boxes to Europe, and had parties for the fortunate within the house with birthdays. Snowball fights with the three freshmen members of the house left few idle moments.

The girls descended on the campus radio station, WOUN, one night and gave a good account of themselves on the local quiz show. The girls "right next to the grill" have an excellent record collection that is not to be rivaled, and the strains of popular tunes may be heard coming from the house each evening.

The nineteen girls and the housemother, Virginia Hendrick, at Matthews Cottage spent a year filled with studies, excitement and fun. The small house on Mulberry started its social season off with an open house right after registration. Next on the list was a hay ride, but the uncompromising weather decided to rain, and a party was held in the house instead. Just before Christmas, the house seniors gave a surprise party for the entire house at the WRA Cabin.

Second Semester saw a Valentine party on Friday, Feb. 13, but no mishaps were reported. Later in the spring the cottage held another hay ride to make up for the one that was missed. The girls had a great deal of trouble during the year with blown fuses — someone was always plugging in too many electric fixtures. Then sometimes the water wasn't always hot on Saturday night, but lots of fun was had by the entire house.

O'BLENESS COTTAGE

The women of O'Bleness Cottage were first this year—first housing unit to go Christmas caroling, that is. Their singing was enjoyed by everyone who heard them, and the girls plan to be first next year.

At homecoming, O'Bleness erected a huge blinking stoplight over the front porch which drew the attention of all who passed by the house on Union Street. Also for the first time this year, O'Bleness Cottage elected officers within the house, and Betty Smith was chosen president. Miss Jefferson, the housemother, and the eighteen girls of O'Bleness determined to increase the house's activities during the year.

Preston Cottage really proved to be a home away from home for the thirteen girls living there. It was decarated at both Halloween and Christmas.

The women at Preston, located next to Howard Hall, managed to squeeze into their extra-curricular life a party at the WRA cabin, three birthday parties and an engagement shower. Still along the lighter side, Preston Cottage presented a challenge to any and all passers-by on College Street to a snow ball fight one late winter afternoon.

Preston's living room is unique in that it boasts a coat-of-arms consisting of a bear trap held up by two rampant beavers.

SLOAN COTTAGE

The cottage next to Carl's was filled with 23 women this year - as the two upperclassmen found 21 freshmen on their hands. The year's highlight of Sloan's activities was the gala Christmas Party, which had all the trimmings, including a hugh Christmas tree.

The "Women of Sloan" were justly proud of their cottage after the complete redecoration of the house in the fall. They were so proud, in fact, they almost forgot to dodge the trickles of water which came with every rain through the leaks in the roof.

Officers at Sloan this year included; Jean Fornwalt, Pres.; Ruth Tomsuden, Treasurer; and Julie Pinkie, Social Chairman.

ORGANIZED HOUSING UNITS

OHU is comprised of the house presidents of the university owned women's cottages. Meetings are held semimonthly in McGuffy Hall to discuss problems arising in the va.ious cottages.

On December 14 OHU sponsored a tea at Lindley Hall in honor of the house mothers.

Along the social side, OHU sponsored  $\alpha$  formal which was held at Rufus Putnam Auditorium on March 13. The music was furnished by Willy McKay and orchestra. Not to be outdone in the line of beauty, OHU put up Pat Hess for Athena Queen.

The WIA and MIA have jointly sponsored Saturday afternoon dancing lessons for the past two years. This year the lessons were held in the new Rec Hall, and were open to the whole campus. The lessons were popular and successful.

Another WIA-MIA sponsored event is the annual Independent's Dance which was held in Rufus Putnam this year, and was a huge success.

The WIA this year was under the leadership of president Beaky Leadreck. At the end of the year, all funds remaining in the organization were contributed by Miss Barbara McClelland, advisor of the WIA, to the Salvation Army.

A box was placed at the entrance of the dorm in which contributions could be placed. Men's Dorm was the only dormitory to use this idea.

The Men's Dorm Winter Dance and Spring Formal were the highlights of the dorm social season. The famous Men's Dorm Bar was used on both these occasions. Under the direction of Bob Egan, Dorm president, the men at the dorm built a portable bandstand for use at their dances, and rented it to various groups for other occasions.

The dorm was very active in sports during the year, having football, basketball, and softball teams.

Invitations to an open house given by the Home Ec Club were sent to all high school senior girls in this area.

Starting the round of social meetings early in the fall was a wiener roast held in Dean Voight's garden. A scavenger hunt was the main attraction at the Halloween Party. The big event of the year was the traditional Smorgasbord, where the Home Ec girls really got a chance to prove that they could cack. The Seniors were given a big send-off in the spring at a brunch held in their honor; and at this time they were initiated into the American Home Economics Association.

In the spring, the Home Ec Club sent delegates to the College Club Province meeting held at the University of Kentucky.

Also, once a month the Red Cross sent entertainment groups to the hospital made up of campus talent.

The annual drive for funds for the Red Cross was successful in meeting the given quota, as was the project to furnish curtains for the library at the Vet's hospital. The curtains were made in cooperation with the University Home Economics Department.

Just before Christmas, the Red Cross sponsored a drive in which students could contribute gifts for the veterans at the Chillicothe Hospital to send home to their relatives. This project went over its goal, and over 500 gifts were sent to Chillicothe.

A final note-worthy project on campus was a collection of notebooks and pencils for European students during the spring.

This year the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers recognized our organization and granted us a charter as a student chapter of the society.

Besides bringing prominent men to our campus for talks at our meetings, we sponsored "Safety Week", the G.E. "House of Magic" show, and dancing on the tennis courts. Sprague residents would proudly tell you that their "home-away-from-home" was a full-fledged dormitory. When referring to the sadly degenerated old house overlooking the Hocking and the railroad, they spoke of it jocularly as the original "tumble down shack by the railroad tracks".

Thirty-nine girls resided in Sprague Hall under the supervision of Mrs. Estella A. Striplin, housemother. Of these 39, 18 were freshmen having their first taste of callege and darm life.

The varied social calendar included an Open House, a Christmas Party at which the girls decorated their own tree with ornaments they contributed, a League of Nations Party, a trip to Old Man's Cave and a Mother's Weekend. The girls also found time for studying, bridge games, the usual gab-fests and a snowball fight with the Delts, their next-door neighbors.

The Alliance Francaise took on new life this year with the arrival of three French students who became leaders in its activities. Veterans who were in France and several wives from French speaking countries have also added interest to the meetings. A large group of faculty members, guests and student members gathered for a gala dinner purporting to be aboard a liner on its way to France.

The programs of the year dealt with Louis XIV and his reign. Scenes from Corneille and Moliere were enacted. Slides of the Versailles palace, of 17th century art, four French films, and an exhibit of reproductions of French paintings were shown. In April, a recital of French folk songs was given by Mme. Rex and M. Blanchard, making their first tour of the United States.

LE CERCLE FRANCAISE

The purpose of Le Cercle Francais is to instill in its members the love of the French language, an understanding of the culture, literature, art, music, and thought of the French nation. With this purpose in mind, the organization discussed this year Paris down through the centuries up to today, dealing with such aspects of the old city as industry and architecture.

Along with the Alliance Francaise, Le Cercle brought to the campus screen many popular French films. Le Cercle, as the custom has been in the past, also adopted a French student to whom packages of clothing and other needed supplies were sent.

Le Cercle was fortunate this year in having two French exchange students on campus, Philippe Bazin and Michael Marchal. Both of these students participated in many of the organization's programs.

1948 ATHENA STAFF

The Athena staff members found a practically new office upon their return in the fall—a brand new, fully equipped darkroom was the most outstanding change. Throughout the year, the office was a buzz of constant activity in all sections—two phonographs playing, strobe lights flashing, strange people using the telephone, mad dashes to the post office for a Saturday noon deadline, and people asking, "What's on at the movie tonight?" or "Where do I get a Post?"

these only added to the confusion. At times there was difficulty in telling photo and editorial staffs apart, but there was one sure way—the photo staff stayed the latest at night.

The usual rush-rush was much in evidence after Christmas as the staff put forth all possible effort to get the book out on time. Pics had to be re-taken, layouts constantly changed, midnight photo printing and not making deadlines filled the year. All efforts were directed toward putting out a bigger, better Athena. The 276 pages of this volume is the largest number of pages in any Athena printed this size. The cost of engravings is almost a third over previous years. The 2425 sales total tops all other years by nearly six hundred books.

The staff hopes that you, the reader, will enjoy reading their "baby"—the '48 Athena. They will long remember this year and the typical phrase, "Well, I guess I'll get something to eat."

The Editorial Board tried to keep some kind of order. Seated are Associate Editor Peggy Close, Editor Fred English, Associate Editor Jeanie Wentz. Standing: Copy Assistant Merle Lorkwood, Copy Editor Patti Kohl, Sports Editor Karl Heidtman, Layou' Editor Gus Bowman.

OHIO UNIVERSITY POST

The Ohio University Post, official student newspaper, appeared twice weekly in 1947-48 under much the same executive staff that had guided it since the middle of January, 1947. Early in September Donald Evans moved into the new position of managing editor and J. Robert Savely joined the executive staff as copy editor. The group was headed by Editor Martin Blau and Business Manager Ralph Lambdin and included Sports Editor Harry Turton, News Editor Alam Himelick, Advertising Manager Joan Hauschulz and Circulation Manager Melvin Smith.

Under these students the Post injected itself into almost every campus issue. It fought for a new student center building, a cleaner campus, better student government.

The Post itself was able to get CAC to liberalize its management policy and found itself with more freedom than it had known in many years. The Post offered such innovations as having details of out-of-town football games relayed immediately to the campus.

Among the popular features of the Post were such columns as Marty Blau's "Off to One Side," Bob Sayre's "In Case You Haven't Heard," Elinor Bliss' "On the Social Merrygoround" and Harry Turton's "Off the Sports Griddle."

Late last fall the members of Quill club, an organization which encourages and fosters creative writing, decided to become an independent organization. Ties were severed with the National Quill Club, and Writer's Workshop was chosen as the new name.

Meetings were held at Mr. Charles Allen Smart's home and his office in Wilson Hall. Members read manuscripts, held criticisms, literary discussions, and held cider and do-nut parties.

In October 1948, the members, under the guidance of Mr. Smart and President Richard Ash, decided to publish their own literary magazine, to which was given the title ELM LEAVES. George Constable, who had magazine writing experience, along with Ester Gohbrect, Paul Kuestner, and Betty Jo Waltz edited and set up the magazine format. The first issue was planned for April. Most active members of the Workshop have contributed fiction, poetry and general interest articles to the tentative Spring issue.

The six hundred residents of the housing units known as East Green united into the East Green Organization, so that this relatively isolated area might become a real part of the entire campus self-governing system and secure needed representation in university affairs.

The purpose as set forth in a written constitution is to create and maintain better living conditions for the residents, to plan and operate social, academic and intra-mural programs and to aid in the advancement of better student relations.

The governing bodies of the organization are the East Green Council and the East Green Executive Committee.

By personal conferences with them, the Mortar Board hopes to encourage and guide them in fields of scholarship, activities, and leadership. A "Smarty Pants" party honoring these members of Alpha Lambda Delta was given in the spring.

At a tea given in honor of the Mortar Board Alumni in the fall, the members became acquainted with local alums. At the same time they became better acquainted among themselves by such informal get togethers as a waffle supper at the W. R. A. cabin.

The Dance Club has an apprentice group, the Reserve Club, which is open to all those interested in modern dancing. # CHRISTMAS DAZE BRINGS CAROLING, PARTIES AND EXAMS

Christmas! The magic word has a slightly different meaning to every student—but the thoughts follow the same pattern. For Christmas-time is a joyous time—and one of relief for many.

Christmas brings with it the exams, the campus caroling, the Christmas Convo, the house parties, and at last the trip home. The air is filled with the season's spirit — in spite of the preholiday tests, the students quicken their step just a little, their faces light up and they hum to the Cutler chimes. For a while the steady grind is relieved, and parties, dances, and singing are the order of the day.

A large crowd attended the annual campus sing held the Wednesday before Christmas.

The biggest all-campus Christmas event is the Campus Caroling, which has become a tradition. This year, not minding the cold, hundreds of students filled the walks in front of Cutler. Before the Caroling a concert was given on the chimes. Then each fraternity glee club gave a selection, followed by several numbers by the Men's Glee Club. The entire gathering then joined in the Alma Mater.

In the morning, a Christmas Convo presented a fifteenth century Mircale Play. The play was directed by M. W. Tillson and produced by Winifred Lenham. The combined Women's and Men's Glee Clubs sang carols at the Convo.

At last! The long awaited trip home adds the finishing touch to OU's Christmas Daze. Leap year gave OU's co-eds the incentive to make Co-ed Prom a huge success.

The girls and their dates relax under the entrance to the dance. "Gold Digger's Holiday" was the theme of this year's Co-ed Prom.

It's the girl who pays, for a change, as Clarion Thesz buys a coke for Bruce Johnston.

The men think it's wonderful! The girls get them a corsage, help them with their coats, and even check the coats at the dance.

O. U.'s Co-ed Prom was attended by over four hundred couples in the annual mid-semester turn-about affair. The corsages the girls made for the fellows ranged fram the ridiculous to the absurd - all the way from a live galdfish in a bowl to the winning valentine heart with real candles. Sponsored by the Women's League, the theme this year was the "Gold Digger's Ball". Bill McCutchean furnished the music.

Panhellenic Council strives to improve present conditions and to advance the welfare of campus sororities through the ideals of high scholarship, good health, and the maintenance of fine social standards. It fosters cooperation, coordination, and unity among sororities, fraternities, and other campus arganizations, and supports every individual and general sorority undertaking on the campus.

The presidents and one delegate from each sorority comprise the membership of Panhel Council. Officers are selected by the rotation plan according to the year the sorority was founded at Ohio University.

This year the annual inter-sorority formal sponsored by Panhel was decorated with the crests of each of the ten sororities on the Ohio University campus.

> Fraternity functions bolstered the campus swing back to pre-war undergraduate life with Inter-Fraternity Council pacing at the head of the 14 male Greek organizations resident on the campus.

> The council had the honor of extending to three new local fraternities, Sigma Beta, Sigma Omicron Nu, and Troweł, recognition as part of the 1,000 or so fraternity men in the university.

Functioning as an arbitration board for disputes and as a policy-setter, the council re-vamped the constitution and rules governing fraternities on the campus to coincide with the normalcy trend; financially sponsored an international exchange student and eclipsed the spring social season with the inter-fraternity dance.

The first post-war class of non-veterans posed new pledgetraining problems for the fraternities which I. F. C. helped solve by correlating fraternity activities. A pledge Inter-Fraternity Council was reactivated by the senior I. F. C. to help in this work.

Blue Key, a pre-war Greek honorary organization, was another institution re-introduced by the council as part of a restoration program to provide fraternity men with fraternity life which would be beneficial both to the students and to the university. Formerly Alpha Phi Delta; received local recognition from CAC in November-

OU SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The University Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of DeForest W. Ingerham, is composed of sixty-five students, faculty and townspeople.

The three formal concerts of the year featured Miss Louise Rose, Soprano, Miss Armida Koivisto, pianist, and the Men's Glee Club as soloists. The Orchestra accompanied the annual chorus program in May.

Miss Louise Rose was a graduate of Ohio University in 1943. She was formerly the soloist at the Cincinnati Symphony and the Chautauqua Opera Company. Miss Rose is now soloist at St. Nicholas Dutch Reformed Church of Fifth Avenue, New York.

Annual trips to nearby cities and branch schools for appearances were not made this year. Guided by a cabinet of officers, the Orchestra provides a spendid opportunity for musical enjoyment.

'48 Prep Follies was top notch

A Dixieland chorus, end-men, and skits by each sorority featuring songs such as "Mammy", "Carolina in the Morning", "Summertime" and "Hello, My Baby" brought back the spirit of the old-time minstrel show to the stage at Memorial. Directed by Marty Sifers, the proceeds from this show are given to the YWCA's social service fund.

"The Late George Apley" was a November OU Theater Production

An Apley family gathering with Bob Mager, Becky Caldwell, Archie Greer as George Apley, Carolyn Mobus, Roger Allen, Peg Ferguson, Ilene Bregmen, Carl Hall and Therese Nelson as Mrs. Apley. Miss Virginia Hahne directed this play about a Boston family which was written by Marguand and Coffman.

OU Theatre's outstanding hits were "Moor Born" and "Skin of our Teeth"

Dan Totheroh's "Moorborn" was a December presentation of the OU Theatre. Christopher Lane, director, was assisted by Roger Allan. "Moorborn" brought the story of the talented Bronte sicters and their family to the OU stage. Kathryn Gottshall and Dave Neuhaus bolow) gave brilliant portrayals in this dramatic production.

FRANK'S

FOR FRIENDLY SERVICE "The Skin of Our Teeth" by Thornton Wilder brought hilarious comedy to the OU theatre. The February production, the story of George Antrobus, his wife and two children, and their maid, Sabina of Excelsior, New Jersey, showed how an average American family survived fire, flood, the ice age, a dozen wars, and the double feature. Left shows Easter Yahya as Sabina, the maid - was the outstanding part in the show.

"Serenade of the Bells"

Without a song no college campus would be the same. They're as traditional as classes; lit moods and occasions as much as the weather. '48 found the students "Lookin' Over a Four-Leaf Clover", sadly humming "My, How the Time does Fly,, at 10 o'clock, and dancing to the strains of "It's Witchery" at the Grill. The songs of '48 may fade, but we'll still be singing in '49.

FIRE!

OU's routine is upset as fire guts Vet's Village— Athens comes to rescue with many gifts for victims.

A Sunday night fire brought crowds to Vet's Village behind Athens' stores. Damage was kept to one prefab hut.

Top, the Youngman's view inside of their home which was a total loss. Bottom, a crowd of well-wishers gather around fire victims.

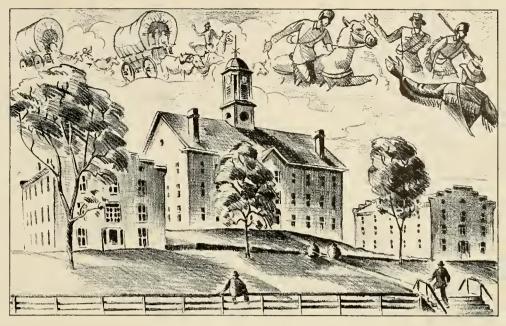

Bill Miller, Vet's Village mayor, presents gifts to Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Youngman and Mr. & Mrs. John Turner and daughter, Patricia, victims of the fire.

Do You Remember When . . . .

Cutler Hall looked like the picture on the right? And can you remember when the Soldiers and Sailors Monument of Ohio University's campus was a famous hitching place and that the flies were more numerous than Yankee base hits; when the present courthouse was built and Court Street was a mud hole in rainy weather; or when South Bridge was on the same level as the railroad tracks; when Grant was the 18th President of the United States, 1869-77. If you can remember these you will recall when Cornwell's first opened in 1869—in the same room they now occupy-79 years ago and still today Athens' most popular jewelry store.

O. U. GRIPES

That you "can't satisfy all of the people all of the time" was evident on the OU campus in '48. Students laudly voiced their gripes, some major anes and same minor. The biggest gripe was the February Graduation in Music Hall, labeled "Black Friday" by the Past. (see cut, right). Here friends of the graduates were generally unable to see the ceremany, as the Hall proved to be much too small to accommodate the audience. Other gripes were mastly unimportant, or at least hard to correct.

Crowded classes and labs caused conflicts among students.

Athens' uneven sidewalks caused angry thoughts—Tie-ups at scarce drinking fountains soured thirsty throats.

Many a meal was missed for booklines, corrected 2nd semester.

First checks were always late, causing chaos among vets.

East Green "Mountaineers" made this trip every day.

Athens' floods provide conversation, cause disruption.

SIG CARNIVAL

Sigma Theta Gamma's '48 Carnival went over with all the tradition and trimmings that have made this function so outstanding at OU. Perhaps the most popular fraternity dance of the year, couples tassed loads of confetti and streamers all over the country club.

Everyone was at the dance. One fellow, afraid of missing the festivities, grabbed his crutches and escorted his date to the fun and frolics.

1948 Community Concert Season

One of the outstanding contributions to the culture of Athens is the Community Concert Series. This program is supported by the students and townspeople alike, and stars of the concert world are brought to the campus. Outstanding among the offering of the Series this year was the full-length production of Puccini's opera "Madame Butterfly." A company of eighty, an orchestra of thirty, new costumes and settings and an all-star cast combined to produce a satisfying performance.

James Melton highlighted '47 Spring season.

Coloratura Virginia MacWatters gave colorful concert—Nikolai and Joanna Grouden were popular cello-piano duo.

MIA's Cinderella Ball

MIA's annual all-campus dance, the Cinderella Ball, was an outstanding February social function. President Baker was present to choose Cinderella, and above, Nick Mihalik, MIA prexy, is shown crowning Miss Marilyn Hoon. ### Independents take Council Presidency

Nick Mihalik, independent candidate, captured the Student Council Election at OU by a 2-1 margin in the March electian. Ted Richards, a write-in camdidate, took the men's vice-presidency, and Nancy Troup won the women's race in much closer competition. A total of 2,164 students voted, which was much larger than last year's total. The electian was marked by vigorous campaigning an the part of some organizations, and Mihalik's victory came somewhat as a surprize, for almost no campaigning was done by the independents. Below are shawn, left-to-right, Nick Mihalik, president, Ted Richards and Nancy Troup.

And so-another-30-

Yes, '48 was a great year, after all—at first it looked as if the Athena's theme was too high, but I think we reached it. '48 was a great year because it was a big year—OU was alive—we were learning to live and to learn. It was also a year of disappointment and troubles — the fellows in the Grill with loneliness on their faces —the people who missed the J Prom—those who read the papers with increasing concern.

But over and above these troubles were the gay times—things we won't forget—the excitement of the first week of school—a winning football game—the impatience of Christmas week —the thrill of working and learning with almost 6000 other students, just like you—the wonderful spring days—we shan't forget these. For OU was preparing itself for a world that needed people willing to think, and to work, and to face problems squarely. For '48 was a busy year—and OU thought about everything from parties and gin-jugs to Russian domination and local intolerance.

Yes, '48 was a great year for OU, and the Athena Staff has tried to bring it to you in our "baby". We've worked hard on it,—hope you enjoy it and want to show it to your friends. We've told ourselves we were a bit modernistic with our phototreatments, and our scarcity of copy—we just hope it gets the idea across.

The editor sincerely wants to thank everyone of the many people who have helped on the book—I'm sure you have learned many things, as have I. I especially want to thank Nan, Gus, Ralph, Jeannie & Peggy; whose special elforts came to my notice. I would like to express my appreciation of the fine cooperation we received from the Indianapolis Engraving Company. Hope you liked it, and
